

Kinglake Ranges Wilderness Camp

Group Leader/Activity Facilitator, Kinglake, Victoria
Kinglake Ranges Wilderness Camp
Casual from Feb 2011

Do you really want to enjoy your work? Do you really want to inspire and develop young people? Do you want to develop yourself?

As a group leader and/or activity facilitator you would be involved in industry leading outdoor and journey programs with life skills development and sustainability insights at their core.

KRWC has a reputation for innovative programs. Our team is experienced and motivated and our camp is full of energy and achievements the team is proud of.

We operate from 800 hectares of parks and forests on top of the Dividing Range just North of Melbourne. Fully rebuilt since the Black Saturday bushfires, we now also include a Sustainability Leadership Centre and have a significant onsite training partnership with Goulburn Ovens TAFE Sport & Rec. If you fit the profile below and would like to be a part of the team please enquire.

To be successful in this role you need to demonstrate:

- Outstanding interpersonal and facilitation skills
- A passion for achieving individual and group development
- A commitment to truly understanding our programs

Duties may involve:

- Facilitating initiative activities
- Delivering challenge ropes experiences
- Guiding small hiking expeditions
- Group facilitation throughout a themed camp

Duties will involve:

- Coaching individuals and groups through experiential learning processes

Qualifications:

We have some great roles that do not require any specific qualifications, however facilitation experience must be strong.

Highly regarded are qualifications in the following fields:

- First Aid
- Orienteering/Navigation
- Bushwalking / Hiking / Campcraft
- Challenge Ropes

If hired, you must provide a copy of a current working with children check and any noted qualification certificates.
